entire production of the mills for the next twelve months, amounting to over a quarter of a million yards of cloth.
This insures the mills being run at their full capacity for the coming year.

ued employe in the Southern Carriage more lucrative position.The Algoma Coal and Coke Company, the principal stockholders of which live in Salem, but whose mines are on the Elk River, will ship a car load of coal for exhibition at the World's Fair.Farmer Frog, whose name appears in Salem's annals of crime with the same regularity as that of the late lamented Hollins Shaver, was before Justice Camper yesterday for stealing from the person of T. D. Blackwell the sum of $7 whilst the latter was engaged in a little game of cards at Alex Campbell's on Water street. The justice sent Frog to jail to await the action of the grand jury, but Officers Boone and Lloyd had to use the "twisters" to get him there, for Mr. Frog said he'd die before he went. He didn't expire, and he's now in jail, so it is evident he was slightly mistaken when he thus made such a bold statement.Shortly after midnight Wednesday, as Constable Lloyd and Officer Johnson were riding along the macadamized road on a "professional raid," they observed of a sudden the reflection of a glare in the sky which appeared to come from a fire near at hand. Speedily locating it at the home of Noah P. Garst they rood at a gallop to the spot, where they discovered an outbuilding almost adjoining his house on fire. They roused the inmates, an old lady and two little girls, and then with a few buckets of water fought the flames until some neighbors arrived, when the fire was extinguished with but comparatively little loss.Wednesday night Deputy Sergeant Finke and Officer Boone brought to the county jail James A. Campbell, who, during the past year moved here from Roanoke and occupied the new residence near Mason's creek on the old Lynchburg road. For some weeks past Mr. Campbell's mind has giving away caused by being out of work and not being able to pay for his property.

Yesterday morning a commission of lunacy composed of three magistrates and Drs. Stearnes and Wiley made out the necessary papers for his commitment to Marion. Mr. Campbell has a wife and seven children and was at one time a police officer in Roanoke.

WYTHEVILLE WHISPERINGS.

Special Correspondence of THE TIMES.
WYTHEVILLE, March 22.—The force of hands at work on the Cripple Creek extension of the Norfolk and Wester railroad has been largely increased, and it is reported that the road will be pushed to completion this summer. Already thousands of tons of high grade iron ore are being taken out daily in the Cripple Creek region and mining operations will be started at several other points during the spring.
The Virginia House on West Main street will be managed during the coming season by Robert C. Ashworth, the late proprietor of the hotel recently burned at Marion, Va.A delightful supper, combining the pleasures of a social occasion with the appetizing menu so daintily served by pretty young ladies, was given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran Church yesterday afternoon and last night at Rev. A. Phillips's residence.
Several cases of la grippe have made their appearance in Wytheville in the last week, the first this year.We are having our first taste of spring today. The sun is bright, the air balmy and the birds are twittering and singing everywhere.Frank St. Clair, of the Wytheville Enterprise, is convalescent after an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, which has confined him to his house for two months.Mr. Stonewall will receive bids today for a handsome new house to be erected on the lot adjoining the Presbyterian Church.Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Page will move into their new residence on North street the first of April.
Mr. and Mrs. James Ward will go to

IMPERSONAL MENTION.

AN old lady in Beverly, Mo., is said to have slept in the same corded bed every night for ninety years.A RESIDENT of Alton, Mo., claims to have recently sold a gold dollar coined in 1804 to a Chicago coin collector for $1,900."TALK about vanity!" said a woman.
"Why, I saw a man stand up this morning before one of those little narrow mirrors between the seats on an elevated car and deliberately survey himself from head to foot."Two YOUNG women have been expelled from the normal school in Philadelphia for a prearranged flirtation with two "nice and handsome" young men in the corridors. The young fellows had called to "inspect the school," and were taken from room to room by a young lady escort."THE other day," said a man, "when I saw a woman slip on a banana skin I found that for some reason it surprised me, and then I realized that while I had seen many men slip on banana skins I had never before seen a woman do so.
Whether women do step on them and I haven't happened to see them, or whether they are more watchful and avoid them I cannot say."

INTERESTING NOTES.

SAND on the coast of Congo Island is said to be getting very scarce.GLORY HALLELUJAH JONES is the imposing name of a Mississippi colored person.BUFFALO has an "agency of direction," a sort of philanthropic intelligence office which makes no charge for its services.It is said more trees were blown down throughout southern Oregon during the late storms than during all other storms in the history of the state.The highest priced town on the line of a railroad in North America is said to be Calgary, the center of the Alberta ranching country. Beer is sold there at twenty-five cents a glass, and the bar-keeper bottles up what is left after he has turned out a glassful.The term "tabby cat" is derived from Atab, a famous street in Bagdad, inhabited by the manufacturers of silken stuff called atabi or taffety. This stuff is woven with wavy markings of watered silk resembling a "tabby" cat's coat.

FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR.

THE Industria, of Puno, Peru, announces the arrival there of Antonio Bem, the Hungarian traveler, who left Buenos Ayres early in August last, intending to make the journey thence to Chicago on foot in time to visit the exposition.The German emperor has very generously consented to send to the world's fair the elegant and costly collection of presents, silver plate and other beautiful articles which were received at various times by his grandfather, his father and himself from fellow-sovereigns in Europe and from the German people.MRS. MARTHA STRONG, of California, has a valuable estate, on which a million pampas plumes are grown annually. She wishes to endow a business college for women, and in order to secure funds for this purpose, has petitioned for space at the world's fair on which to erect a pampas-grass pavilion, where plumes, bouquets, boxes and baskets of the grass may be sold.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE.

MRS. DE WITT TALMAGE makes her husband's pastoral and social engagements, and all his lecturing interests are in her hands.JOHN H. FLAGLER, the Standard oil magnate, was fined one hundred dollars the other day by Judge Beach, of the New York supreme court, for failing to answer a subpoena for jury duty.MR. JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER has fifty feet of ground on each side of his handsome residence in New York, and this is flooded with water in winter and serves as a skating park for his family and their friends.PROF. E. L. BARNARD, of the Lick observatory, often devotes twenty hours out of the twenty-four to work at the telescope and in the computing room during clear weather. When it rains or cloudy of course he is not subject to the same temptation.

WORK AND WAGES.

The city of Seattle, Wash., will increase the necessary tools to idle men who wish work and will pay them fairly for all work done for the city.MORE than a fourth of the gold and more than a third of the silver produced throughout the world in the year 1891 was mined in the United States.CARROLL D. WRIGHT, chief of the United States bureau of statistics, reports that wages in Massachusetts average $1.70 to $1 paid in England, while the cost of the same mode of living is $1.17 here to $1 in England.THE Belgian officials in the Congo country are arranging to import Chinese coolies to do the work of common laborers. The English, who have tried the experiment of mixing Chinamen and negroes, wish the Belgians success, but they predict that the effort will be a failure.

TAX NOTES.

GREAT BRITAIN derives a revenue of $1,200,000 yearly from the sale of revenue stamps that must be put upon all packages of patent medicines.THE Russian government will shortly impose a special duty upon foreign goods conveyed from one Russian port to another in foreign vessels.A LAW has been passed in the British colony of Victoria imposing a five per cent. duty on the income derived from property in the colony by persons not resident in the colony.It is proposed in France to impose a tax of ten centimes for 1,000 francs upon time bargains on the Bourse. This tax is expected to yield 12,000,000 francs, which would help to cover the deficit resulting from the reform of the liquor tax.
